

SANDI KRASOWSKI/THE CHRONICLE-JOURNAL

World record challenged

Port Arthur Collegiate Institute students, from left, Julia Mutrie, Kristina Urquhart, Tina Petrick, Ben Daniar, Brianne Kirkpatrick and Alexandra Erickson practise their timing to set up a row of pennies that will eventually total one mile in length. The students will compete with other school teams to be the fastest to qualify for a record. See story on page A4.